REENTRY

◆◆ Did you miss an issue of the UPDATE? ◆◆

Come visit us online at www.drc.state.oh.us/web/offenderreentry.htm for back issues of the Update, or visit us on the DRC Intranet under the Employee Information tab. We are under Newsletters then select Offender Reentry. The next issue of the Update will be out February 21, 2008

WELCOME TO THE UPDATE

The Reentry CORE and MORE Update is a way of keeping everyone up to date about what is going on not only in the department but also around the nation with reentry. In each edition of The Reentry, CORE and MORE Update, there will be information on what is happening with reentry around the department, updates on the CORE Grant and in our MORE section, information on books, websites, news, research and reports, training opportunities, and funding resources. The Update will go out the second and fourth Thursday of each month. If you have information you feel would be an asset to the Update, please forward all information to Candace Knight. Please feel free to share the Update with all of those who have an interest in reentry.

Reentry Updates

Legal Aid Society's Franklin County Prisoner Reentry Program

In 2006, The Legal Aid Society of Columbus established the Prisoner Reentry Program in order to help formerly incarcerated men and women break down barriers to successful reentry by providing education, connections to resources, advice and counsel, and direct representation. The bi-monthly Legal Aid Prisoner Reentry Clinics focus on a variety of topics from family law to job placement providing opportunities for service providers and ex-offenders to connect and to engage Legal Aid attorneys. Thanks to the community outreach work of the Legal Aid AmeriCorps VISTA Members (Melissa Baker, Lindsey Watson, Erica Steward, Adrienne Porter, and Lisa Scales) the program is steadily gaining strength and adding to the foundation set by those VISTA Members who served in the first project year. This year, the VISTA Members created the Legal Aid Reentry newsletter, Reentry Quarterly, in order to promote the work of and build linkages among service providers, reentry programs, formerly incarcerated men and women, legal professionals, and community members. In addition, Legal Aid served as the co-sponsor of the Second Annual Community Justice Walk in Columbus, in honor of International Restorative Justice Week. The Legal Aid reentry team continues to promote a community justice approach and believes that by working together, we can successfully respond to this growing need and help returning men and women come home to stay. To view the fall edition of the newsletter, visit the following website <http://www.columbuslegalaid.org/media/the%20nov%20newsletter.pdf>. To learn more about the Reentry Program, contact Erica Steward at (614) 224-8374 x.149.

In the Spotlight

Each month the Reentry CORE and MORE Update will highlight something new and interesting in Reentry. If you have any reentry websites, books, movies or resources that you feel have a good theme around reentry, please forward that information to Candace Knight. Let's turn the SPOTLIGHT on for Reentry.

Drug Policy Alliance Accepting Applications for Advocacy Grants Program

Deadline: Various

The Drug Policy Alliance (<http://www.drugpolicy.org/>) has announced that it will allocate another $1.4 million to its Advocacy Grants Program. The program seeks to promote policy change and advance drug-policy reform at the local, state, and national levels by strategically funding smaller, geographically limited, or single-issue organizations and projects. The program works to raise awareness and promote change through two vehicles: 1) Promoting Policy Change: This general funding cycle targets organizations working to advance drug-policy reform at the local, state, and national levels through advocacy, grassroots organizing, and education. Generally, the cap on grants awarded during the Promoting Policy Change cycle is $50,000 each, with an approximate allocation in total funding of $1.2 million. 2) Rapid Response/Special Opportunities: This monthly funding cycle is for time-sensitive projects to respond or take advantage of strategic public education and campaigns to block drug-war initiatives or advance drug-policy reform. Grants will be made on an ongoing basis until funding is exhausted. The approximate allocation in total funding is $200,000. Proposals are due on the first business day of the month. Complete program guidelines and application materials are available at the Drug Policy Alliance Web site.

Gerber Foundation offers Grants to Benefit Infants and Young Children

Deadline: For the May grants, submit letters prior to December 1; for the November grants, submit letters prior to June 1. Priority is given to projects that improve infants' and young children's nutrition, care, and development from the year before birth to three years of age. Programs should support a specific nutrition intervention and have defined outcome parameters. The foundation gives priority to projects of national or regional impact. Organizations recognized as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3) are eligible to apply for foundation grants.

For more information, please visit www.gerberfoundation.org/grantmaking\_policies.htm

Ludwick Family Foundation

Deadline: Initial requests are only accepted during these times: January 1 to March 1 and July 1 to September 1.

The Foundation is a philanthropic organization committed to assisting a broad array of groups that are working to make a positive difference in the world. Ludwick Family Foundation varies from many other foundations in that it tends to provide grants for tangible types of items that assist a program or project, rather than funding the program itself. Applicants must be tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3), known as nonprofit public charities, and not be a private foundation under 509 (a) of the code. The foundation is only able to make grant awards to approximately 20-25 organizations each year. Grants range from $5,000 to $50,000. Grants are made for a single year. For more information contact Deanna Monaghan, Program Officer, Ludwick Family Foundation, P.O. Box 1796, Glendora, CA 91740, (626) 852-0092 E-mail: ludwickfndn@ludwick.org .

Ford Foundation

Deadline: Ongoing

The Ford Foundation announces grants to develop new ideas or strengthen key organizations that address poverty and injustice while promoting democratic values, international cooperation and human achievement. Within these broad aims, the foundation focuses on fields within 1) Asset Building and Community Development, 2) Peace and Social Justice, 3) Knowledge and Creativity and Freedom. The foundation's funds are limited in relation to the great number of proposals received. The foundation directs its support to activities that are within its current interests and are likely to have wide effect. Support is not normally given for routine operating costs of institutions or for religious activities. Except in rare cases, funding is not available for the construction or maintenance of buildings. Most of the foundation's grant funds are given to organizations. Although it also makes grants to individuals, they are few in number and are limited to research, training and other activities related to its program interests. Since its inception, the foundation has provided more than $10 billion in grants and loans. Applications are considered throughout the year. Normally applicants may expect to receive within six weeks an indication of whether their proposals are within the foundation's program interests and budget limitations.
