Double Perimeter Fence Housing	Bureau of Classification and Reception (BOCR)	Housing units located within a prison identified by the appropriate regional director as having two (2) fences, including sufficient perimeter integrity as well as patrol, to qualify as double fenced. Regional directors shall, at least annually, review all their facilities to determine if they qualify as a single or double fence rated facility. Single fence perimeters may also be designated as double perimeter, when approved by the OOP deputy director if they have sufficient perimeter or security structures which equal, or exceed, double perimeter fencing. This includes, but is not limited to, stun fences and high security single fences supported by infrastructure and movement procedures which do not allow incarcerated individuals near the fence without direct supervision. The installation of a stun fence around a prison facility or unit with a single fence does not automatically make the facility double perimeter rated. The designated regional director and the deputy director of Prisons may, at their discretion, increase the rating of the prison/facility to double perimeter. Current exceptions approved by the OOP deputy director: (1) OSP Level 4/E Compound, (2) Grafton Camp at managing officer's discretion only (based on stun fence), (3) NERC (based on provisions listed in this policy).	53-CLS-01

HB180 (Megan's Law) - Effective 1/1/1997 thru 12/31/2007	Bureau of Records Management (BORM)	This law (which revised ORC Chapter 2950) is still applicable to offenders who committed their offense prior to 1/01/2008. Sex offender designations under this law include: (1) Aggravated Sexually Oriented Offenders: Violation of ORC Section 2907.02(A)(1)(b) committed on/after 06/13/2002, or a violation of ORC Section 2907.02(A)(2) committed on/after 07/31/2003. Aggravated Sexually Oriented Offenders are subject to registration and verification every 90 days for life. (2) Sexual Predator: A person designated by the court, who has been convicted of, or pleaded guilty to, committing a sexually oriented offense and who is likely in the future to commit additional sexually oriented offenses. This designation can be made in one of two ways: a) the offender is convicted of a sexually violent offense with sexually violent predator specification, or b) the sentencing court adjudicates and specifies in a journal entry. Sexual Predator offenders are subject to registration and verification every 90 days for life. (3) Sexually Violent Predator: ORC 2971 - A person who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to committing, on/after 1/01/1997, a sexually violent offense and is likely to engage in the future in one or more sexually violent offenses. The indictment charging the offender with a sexually violent offense will include a specification that the offender is a sexually violent predator. The specification shall be stated at the end of the body of the indictment, and all factors set forth in ORC Section 2971.01(H)(1) to (H)(6) (pre 1/1/08) that apply may be considered. If the offender is convicted of or pleads guilty to a sexually violent predator specification in the indictment, the conviction of or plea of guilty automatically classifies the offender as a sexual predator. Sexually Violent Predator offenders are subject to registration and verification every 90 days for life. (4) Habitual Sex Offender: A person designated by the court who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to committing a sexually oriented offense, and who previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to one or more sexually oriented offenses. Habitual Sex Offenders are subject to registration and verification annually for 20 years. (5) Sexually Oriented Offender: A person sentenced on/after 1/1/97 and who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to committing a sexually oriented offense, but who has not been designated as a sexual predator, habitual sex offender, child-victim sexual predator, habitual child-victim offender; or a person sentenced prior to 1/1/97 for a sexually oriented offense, and is still incarcerated on 1/1/97 for a sexually oriented offense; or a person sentenced prior to 1/1/97 for a sexually oriented offense and is still incarcerated on 1/1/97 who has 1 prior sex conviction under the old Habitual Sex Offender law; or a person sentenced prior to 1/1/97 for a non-sex offense and still incarcerated on 1/1/97 who has 2 prior sex convictions under the old Habitual Sex Offender law. *The court does not have to designate the offender as a 'sexually oriented offender.' Instead, this is a determination made by operation of law after the record officer reviews the offender's criminal history. Sexually Oriented Offenders are subject to registration and verification annually for 10 years.	07-ORD-07

Level 1 Security	Bureau of Classification and Reception (BOCR)	The lowest security level in the classification system. Level 1 incarcerated persons should be granted the highest amount of privilege and autonomy whenever possible (subject to operational needs/capabilities of the facility). Behavior at Level 1 is expected to be rule compliant and pro-social. All persons at Level 1 must be housed in double perimeter fence housing unless they are screened to be housed in a single perimeter fence. Level 1 incarcerated persons may also be screened to work outside of the fence or in the community under intermittent supervision. Incarcerated persons at Level 1 may be housed with Level 2 incarcerated persons with no special arrangements required.	53-CLS-01
Level 2 Security	Bureau of Classification and Reception (BOCR)	A security level for incarcerated persons who are deemed in need of more supervision than Level 1, but less than Level 3. All persons at Level 2 must be housed in double perimeter fence housing as defined by this policy, exceptions can be approved by the deputy director of prisons. Housing may be dorm, rooms, or cells. Those at Level 2 tend to receive greater autonomy and freedom of movement during the day to encourage pro-social behavior and programming and receive privileges greater than Level 3. Persons at Level 2 may be housed with others at Level 1 with no special arrangements required. Incarcerated persons at Level 2 may also be housed with those at Level 3 with/without special arrangements at the discretion of the managing officer. Level 3 incarcerated persons who have been reduced to level 2 security, but are pending transfer, may be housed with level 3 persons until the transfer occurs.	53-CLS-01

Level 3 Security	Bureau of Classification and Reception (BOCR)	The security level that is the next degree higher than Level 2 and requires more security/supervision than Level 2 but less than Level 4. All incarcerated persons at Level 3 must be housed in Double Perimeter Fence Housing as defined by this policy, exceptions can be approved by the OOP deputy director. Housing is generally celled apart from units specially designed to prepare rule compliant incarcerated persons for release. This exception is currently granted for the MaCI Zone A dormitory with the following provisions: Persons will be screened by the unit team to determine suitability for housing in a more open environment. This unit is to prepare incarcerated persons in a Level 3 environment for release to the community or reduction to Level 2. Level 3 is considered general population but is designed for persons who are more likely to, or have previously engage(d) in, disruptive prison behavior. Internal movement is under greater supervision and more controlled. Privileges shall be greater than Level 4, but less than Level 2. Incarcerated persons at Level 3 may be housed with persons at Level 2 or Level 4 with/without special arrangements at the discretion of the managing officer. Level 3 incarcerated persons who have been reduced to Level 2 may be housed at the Level 3 supervision level until their transfer. Level 4 incarcerated persons who have been reduced to Level 3 but are pending transfer to a Level 3 facility may be housed at the Level 4 supervision level.	53-CLS-01
--------------------------------	--	--	------------------

Level 4 Security	Bureau of Classification and Reception (BOCR)	Level 4 security is considered maximum security, but it is not restrictive housing and incarcerated persons must be allowed more than 2 hours out of cell time daily as well as access to general population services. The physical security requirements for Level 4 may vary based on the overall physical structure of the facility. Double perimeter fences, or architectural equivalents where at least two independent barriers exist between an incarcerated person and the outside, are required. The perimeter patrol is armed, with an alarmed perimeter intrusion detection system. The security at Level 4 is enhanced with controlled/supervised movement at all times as well as limited, and highly supervised, access to outside recreation/activities. Cells must be securable, and incarcerated persons must be single celled while at a parent institution unless there is approval from the deputy director of Prisons. Typically, incarcerated persons at Level 4 have established histories of violent and/or disruptive prison behavior or their prison and community history indicate there is a very high risk of escape. It is also a classification for those who are involved in, but not leading others to commit, violent, disruptive, predatory, or riotous actions, and/or pose a threat to the security of the institution. Incarcerated persons who have been assigned Level 4 security but are awaiting transfer do not automatically require single celling except at the discretion of the managing officer. Level 3 and level 4 incarcerated persons can be housed together at the discretion of the managing officer. Probation	Division of Parole and Community Services (DPCS)	A period of supervision for a convicted offender (felony or misdemeanor) in lieu of prison/jail term for a specified length of time. The execution of the sentence of confinement is suspended and the defendant is placed under the supervision of the court. The period of supervision may be up to a period of five (5) years. Once placed on probation, the offender is expected to abide by the conditions the court imposed. Probation services may be administered by the county probation department, the APA Field Services, or a nonprofit, public or private agency, association, or organization with which the county decides to contract for services. The term Probation was replaced with “Community Control” for offenses committed on or after July 1, 1996, and Community Control differs from Probation in that the trial court no longer suspends execution of the prison term, but rather, the sentencing court orders the offender directly to submit to community-control sanctions. Upon a community control violation, the court imposes a sanction which could be a prison term within the range available for the original offense.	100-APA-06 100-APA-09 100-APA-15 100-APA-21 102-FUG-02 108-ABC-04

Senate Bill 10 (SB10) Adam Walsh Act Effective 01/01/2008 - present	Bureau of Records Management (BORM)	Revised ORC Chapter 2950 to comply with the Adam Walsh Act and replaced the requirements of HB180. Offenders who committed their offense January 1, 2008, and later are assigned to a tier designation defined by 2950.01 for registration purposes. Sex offenses are broken down into three tiers depending on the severity: • Tier 3 is a sexually oriented offense or child victim offense that carries a sentence of greater than one (1) year and is generally comparable to higher level sexually oriented offenses in Ohio Tier 3 offenders are subject to registration and verification every ninety (90) days for life. • Tier 2 is a sexually oriented offense or child victim offense that carries a sentence of greater than one (1) year and is generally comparable to lower level sexually oriented offenses in Ohio. Tier 2 offenders are subject to registration and verification every 180 days for twenty-five (25) years. Tier 2 juveniles register for twenty (20) years. • Tier 1 is a sexually oriented offense or child victim offense that is not a Tier 2 or Tier 3 offense. Tier 1 offenders are subject to registration and verification once every twelve (12) months for fifteen (15) years. Juveniles register for ten (10) years.	07-ORD-07
Senate Bill 160 (SB160) Offense	Division of Parole and Community Services (DPCS)	Aggravated murder; murder; a felony of offense of violence as defined in ORC section 2901.01 of the first, second, or third degree; and any offense punished by a life sentence.	105-PBD-13

Senate Bill 201 (SB201)	Legal	Enactment of Ohio Revised Code (ORC) 2967.271, effective March 22, 2019, which establishes indefinite prison terms for “qualifying felony offenses” (defined as first- and second-degree felonies committed on or after the effective date, other than those for which a life sentence was imposed) with a presumption that the incarcerated adult shall be released at the end of the minimum prison term or the incarcerated adult's presumptive earned early release date, whichever is earlier. SB201 allows the Director of ODRC to recommend the court grant a reduction in the minimum prison term due to the incarcerated adult’s exceptional conduct or the incarcerated adult’s adjustment to incarceration, subject to the final approval of the sentencing court. It also allows ODRC to rebut the presumption of release at the end of the minimum term at a hearing and maintain the incarcerated adult in prison for an additional period of incarceration up to the maximum term, in certain circumstances.	78-REL-10 105-PBD-15
